

Who's Doing the Talking: Is the Brain Engaged?

Invite! Excite! Ignite! is about that mysterious, magical, confounding, frustrating, exhilarating, important, and misunderstood profession of the classroom teacher.

Three million teachers currently work with 50 million students in US k12 classrooms. NCES.Gov, 2015. Among these dedicated teachers, many find that their most valuable help, often comes from other teachers, the teacher across the hall or down the wing a ways, or through chance meetings in the teacher workroom. This book is for them. It consists of ideas, strategies, quotes and notes from thousands of teacher-to-teacher interactions.

Objectives and Outcomes:

1. Learn how empower with student ownership
2. Foster student interactions for engaging collaborations
3. Revisit best practices through strategies that work
