

Schools on the Brink of Greatness

What Does “The Brink of Greatness” Look Like in Transforming Schools?

- Students Engaging in Authentic Projects and Performances
  - Students Generating “Need to Know” Questions
  - Students Working Together in High Functioning Teams
  - Students Investigating Ideas with Purpose and Relevance
- Students Presenting Findings to Peers with Poise and Presence

Schools on “The Brink of Greatness” move classrooms and the teaching and learning scene from “identical, neatly wrapped packages” to “random, messy, loosely piled stuff.”

Learn how to move to the “Brink of Greatness”

Schools can make the difference in the learning journey of every child? In fact, highly motivated school leadership and dedicated staff are changing the status quo. Over-crowded curriculum, stand and deliver lessons and static test scores are being replaced by greater student engagement and greater student results, greater student agency
